Ledger wall tiles offer the rustic-yet-clean look of split-face, tightly stacked stone, with a classic chiseled style ideal for enhancing interior walls, kitchen backsplashes, fireplace walls, shower walls, and exterior walls. For applications wrapping a corner, Ledger Corners come in two sizes that fit perfectly together at a right angle for a finished, crisp appearance.

“Stone is a material that never falls out of fashion—timeless, warm, and beautiful in nearly any setting. Ledger Panels and Corners deliver this look and feel, while being efficient and cost effective to install. This makes genuine natural stone products accessible for all types of projects,” said Nigel Eaton, CEO for Island Stone.

Ledger Panel and Ledger Corner come in five colors: Frost White, Alabaster, Hazy Grey, Moonlit, and Charcoal Glint; Frost White and Charcoal Glint feature a hint of sparkle. The Ledger Panels measure 23-5/8" by 5-7/8" and 5/8" thick, covering 0.97 square feet per panel. The Ledger Corner pieces that have natural face edges, provide a natural looking corner and an easy installation.
